- What is the Wedding Package?
  This is when you have both a sit down 3 course meal and an evening buffet.

- What is a "Wedding Breakfast" …How do I choose it?
  This is a sit down meal, named as the 'breakfast' as it is the first meal after you are married. We ask you to make only one choice per course, with the exception of vegetarian options and special dietary requirements.

- What if I do not want the full wedding package?
  We are happy to arrange either a Wedding Breakfast only or Evening Reception only. Room hire charges will apply dependent on your numbers, availability and date.

- What if I have children attending?
  Children are welcome in the hotel. For children aged between 2 and 12, we are happy to provide half portions of the wedding breakfast at half the price. Alternatively, we can offer children's meals. We do not charge for children's meals under the age of 2 and are happy for parents to bring in their own food for them.

- What if I want to supply my own foods and drinks?
  The hotel does not allow corkage or any outside catering (other than for religious needs), excluding your wedding cake, which we are happy to cut up and serve for you.

- Do you supply decorations?
  The hotel does not provide decorations, as it is such a personal choice; however we are happy to give you recommendations and contact details.

- Do you provide entertainment?
  The hotel can provide you with our resident DJ priced at £320.00, who will be happy to play song requests. Alternatively you may wish to provide your own entertainment – there is no additional charge, however they must have an entertainment license and insurance (the hotel reserves the right to ask for copies of these if required).

The hotel can provide a CD player priced at £15.00 so to play music during your ceremony and/or wedding breakfast, although we are happy for you to bring in your own. Please note that religious music cannot be played during civil ceremonies.
