

Weekend Breakfast Chef – 16 hours Leeds \ Bradford

This is an exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic & talented person to join our professional brigade to manage the weekend breakfast operation.

Your responsibilities and opportunities will include:

- The production of food to the highest standard
- Ensuring health, safety & hygiene standards & regulations are observed and carried out
- Supporting the kitchen brigade Head Chef in day to day operations

Ideally you will have previous experience in a similar role. Fully training and development for the successful candidate. The position involves early morning shifts until lunchtime.

You will need hotels and/or industry standard qualifications in food production, you will be passionate about food, demonstrate flair in your food production & possess a keen eye for detail. You will be highly motivated, have the ability to motivate & stay calm under pressure. You will be cooking and delivering breakfast to our Hotel residents up to and 300 guests during a busy service. Good organizational skills are a must. See www.cedarcourthotels.co.uk

In return we are offering:

- £10.00 per hour
- Excellent career development & training
- Free parking
- Free meals on duty
- 28 days paid annual holiday, enhanced with service

Only those people eligible to live and work in the UK need apply.